

Stacy Arnold

Classical Guitarist

"Stacy Arnold is a talented and polished performer whose love for music and the guitar shows through every note and every piece he plays. His repertoire includes excellent music from the Renaissance to the present time, all of which he plays with style and dedication".

Robert Guthrie (Professor of Guitar, Southern Methodist University)

"Stacy Arnold brings artistry, professionalism and a wide variety of repertoire to every concert. As an ambassador of the instrument with a wealth of concert experience, he shares his musical knowledge and artistry with audiences of all ages".

Dr. William Yelverton, DMA (Professor of Guitar Studies, Middle Tennessee State University)

"Stacy plays with a heightened sense of style and finesse. In particular, his interpretation of Spanish Baroque repertoire is especially beautiful and seems to evoke the total ambiance of the era and locale."

Dr. Wes Moore, DMA (Chair, Department of Music, Dallas Baptist University)