

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How do we book you?

Simply by sending an e-mail inquiry by visiting the Contact link to give the date, location, and music details of your wedding. A $150.00 non-refundable deposit is required to reserve the date. The deposit is paid by Zelle, Venmo, or PayPal. The final balance is due no later than one month prior to the wedding date.

2. What method of payment do you accept for the deposit and final balance?

Zelle, Venmo, and PayPal are payment methods used for both deposits and final balances. Once the client is ready to book the wedding performance, an invoice is sent to pay either the deposit or balance. Final balances are due no later than one month prior to the wedding date.

3. Do you have a contract for the wedding booking?

Yes, absolutely. Once a client submits the deposit or balance, a contract is sent to the client. A signed contract between the client and myself is an agreement to both parties to ensure good fidelity for one of the most important days of a bride-to-be's life.

4. What music do I need to choose for the ceremony?

The music choices are entirely up to you (the bride-to-be) and your preferences. I always discuss the music details of the ceremony to tailor each ceremony to your needs. If you need additional information, please feel free to send an e-mail (see email contact form) or text or call at 469-337-7294 and I will be glad to answer your questions.

5. When do you start the music for the ceremony?

I conclude the prelude music and begin the ceremony music at your wedding coordinator's signal. This is arranged between myself and your coordinator (or designated person) when I arrive early to set up and do a sound check. I always arrive at the wedding location forty-five minutes prior to the time of the prelude performance.

7. Do you provide amplification for the classical guitar for the ceremony performance?

Yes, the proper type of amplification for the classical guitar is essential for a wedding performance.
